

Wakeboarding

I. Series Recap

- Is my wake affecting people _____ or _____?
- Do I have the _____ to be _____?
- What is my _____?
- How am I doing with the “_____ of _____”?

Authenticity, forgiveness, and honor are keys to unleashing God's power and protection in my relationships.

II. A New Perspective on “High Wakers”

I John 4:19-21

We love because he first loved us. ²⁰If anyone says, "I love God," yet hates his brother, he is a liar. For anyone who does not love his brother, whom he has seen, cannot love God, whom he has not seen. ²¹And he has given us this command: Whoever loves God must also love his brother.

A. Understanding God's _____

- God's love towards _____ is the motivation of my love towards _____.
- I love others for _____ sake, not _____.
- How can I _____ a visible image of God's creation and pretend to _____ the invisible Creator.

B. Applying God's _____

- High wakers in the _____ often reveal hurtful pain from the _____.
- _____ people only know how to _____ people.
- “High Wakers” are not the _____ but may be influenced by the _____.
- With “High Wakers” in my life, it is not my job to _____ them out or _____ them.
- “High Wakers” provide a great opportunity to _____.
- When I engage in the _____ I can expect the _____.

John 13:34-35

"A new command I give you: Love one another. As I have loved you, so you must love one another. ³⁵By this all men will know that you are my disciples, if you love one another."

III. The High Stakes of “High Wakers”

- How I _____ the “High Wakers” in my life is a good indication of who has a _____ on me.
- Choosing to turn into (engage) a “High Waker” is a move from relational _____ to relational _____.
- “High Wakers” are _____; make sure you set appropriate _____.

Wakeboarding

I. Series Recap

- Is my wake affecting people _____ or _____?
- Do I have the _____ to be _____?
- What is my _____?
- How am I doing with the “_____ of _____”?

Authenticity, forgiveness, and honor are keys to unleashing God's power and protection in my relationships.

II. A New Perspective on “High Wakers”

I John 4:19-21

We love because he first loved us. ²⁰If anyone says, "I love God," yet hates his brother, he is a liar. For anyone who does not love his brother, whom he has seen, cannot love God, whom he has not seen. ²¹And he has given us this command: Whoever loves God must also love his brother.

A. Understanding God's _____

- God's love towards _____ is the motivation of my love towards _____.
- I love others for _____ sake, not _____.
- How can I _____ a visible image of God's creation and pretend to _____ the invisible Creator.

B. Applying God's _____

- High wakers in the _____ often reveal hurtful pain from the _____.
- _____ people only know how to _____ people.
- “High Wakers” are not the _____ but may be influenced by the _____.
- With “High Wakers” in my life, it is not my job to _____ them out or _____ them.
- “High Wakers” provide a great opportunity to _____.
- When I engage in the _____ I can expect the _____.

John 13:34-35

"A new command I give you: Love one another. As I have loved you, so you must love one another. ³⁵By this all men will know that you are my disciples, if you love one another."

III. The High Stakes of “High Wakers”

- How I _____ the “High Wakers” in my life is a good indication of who has a _____ on me.
- Choosing to turn into (engage) a “High Waker” is a move from relational _____ to relational _____.
- “High Wakers” are _____; make sure you set appropriate _____.