

TRUTH 1019

Understanding Your Spiritual Gifts, Part II

I. Recap

- I must discover, _____ and _____ my spiritual giftedness.
- I am in God's _____.
- I can't grow until I _____ and _____ with my spiritual gift.
- One day I will have to give an _____ for how I have _____ my gifts.

II. S.H.A.P.E.

A. _____ my SHAPE

_____ : How has God gifted me?

_____ : What am I passionate about?

_____ : What am I good at?

_____ : What does my personality best fit me for?

_____ : What does my past experience best suit me for?

B. _____ my SHAPE (I Peter 4:10)

• I serve _____ by serving _____. (Matthew 20:28)

• My _____ will determine my ministry, but my _____ will determine my maturity.

1. Serving well means being _____. (Matthew 20:30-32)

- God's order of obedience has always been _____ and then _____ . (Ephesians 2:10)

2. Serving well means being _____ .
(John 11:41-42 & Psalms 100:2)

3. Serving like Jesus means being _____ .
(John 17:4 & I Corinthians 4:2)

Real servants do everything as unto the Lord.
--

III. Exposing Some of the Gifts (Romans 12:3-8)

A. _____ : The ability to speak the clear Word of God into confusing situations in a way that builds a person up. (I Corinthians 14:3)

B. _____ : Meeting spiritual needs in practical ways.

C. _____ : A Spirit-given desire to clarify the truth.

- Teachers are not just concerned with _____ but are also concerned with _____ with clarity.

D. _____ : The desire and ability to stimulate people in their faith.

E. _____ : The ability to accumulate financial resources and the desire to disperse them.

- Givers have a strong desire to further the _____ of the _____ through financial support.

F. _____ : The Spirit-given ability to see the vision and move people toward it.

G. _____ : The Spirit-given capacity to identify with and show compassion to those in distress.

H. _____ : The Spirit-given ability to lead people outside your sphere of influence to a saving knowledge of Christ.